

Proclamation

African American History Month

WHEREAS, African American history is a very large part of American history and should be recognized throughout the year; and

WHEREAS, February is observed as African American History Month for a moment to reflect upon how far we have come as a Nation and conquer what challenges remain; and

WHEREAS, overcoming today's challenges will require the same dedication and sense of urgency that enabled past generations of African Americans to rise above the injustices of their time.

WHEREAS, the City of Lake Alfred will continue to work towards becoming an inclusive community in which all citizens, past, present, and future, are respected and recognized for their contributions to our community, the state, the country, and the world.

Now, Therefore, I, Nancy Z. Daley, as Mayor of the City of Lake Alfred, Florida, do hereby proclaim the following recognition:

February as African American History Month

The City of Lake Alfred hereby does encourage all citizens, city government officials, and employees to do everything possible to ensure that this month is recognized and celebrated accordingly.

Dated this 6th day of February, 2012.

Nancy Z. Daley, Mayor
City of Lake Alfred, Florida
